

Don't QUIT

SCHOLARSHIPS

make it enough!

Scholarship Red Flags:

- *Winning a scholarship you didn't apply for
- *Requiring personal information like your Social Security number or bank account information
- *Requiring fees (most of the time, ask GU coordinator if unsure.)

your financial aid package consists of a cornucopia of ways to help you pay for college. scholarships are one of them! scholarships are one of the forms of financial aid you do not need to repay.

- scholarships vary in terms of their difficulty and level of competition. be resilient and apply to as many as you can reasonably manage.

scholarships

check websites like:

Scholly, Sallie Mae, FastWeb, College Board, NH Charitable Foundation, scholarship.com, studentscholarships.com, kaleidoscope.com and more

WHEN SHOULD I APPLY?

60% of scholarships are due between February and April, meaning you should start searching and applying now.

SENIORS!!
MAKE SURE TO FILE YOUR FAFSA AS SOON AS POSSIBLE!
