some scholarships may require you to submit a brief application, some may require you to submit an essay or art sample, others might ask for an interview. take some time to research different scholarships and apply to as many as you can reasonably manage.

LIKE BRINGING A MEAL TO FRIENDSGIVING TO MAKE YOUR FEAST BIGGER, SCHOLARSHIPS ARE A WAY TO MAKE YOUR FINANCIAL AID PACKAGE LARGER!

a scholarship is a sum of money that is used to cover the cost of furthering your education.

scholarships do not have to be repaid.

There are many different types of scholarships you may encounter. High schools, colleges, community organizations, alumni organizations, individuals, and other entities award scholarships based on academic achievement, anticipated academic major, athletic performance, artistic talents, special achievements, different aspects of a student's identity, and more.

where can i find scholarships?

search websites like Scholly, Sallie Mae, FastWeb, College Board, NH Charitable Foundation, scholarship.com, studentscholarships.com, kaleidoscope.com and more!
